Inmate Trent Joy BN (15714795) was arrested by the El Cajon Police Department on 3/7/2015, for 4573.8 PC. He is an un-sentenced inmate and has a court date on 3/10/2015. Prior to the incident Joy claimed he was assaulted by an inmate inside PTS cell #1. After a witness check was completed there was evidence to believe that Joy's injuries were self-inflicted, and he had not been assaulted.

See Corporal Riley's ISR # 154007279

INVESTIGATION:

Corporal Riley was escorting inmate Joy to Booking Holding #1, Joy tensed his body up so Corporal Riley guided him against the wall and told him to relax. Corporal Riley began to escort Joy into the cell, when Joy turned around and spat onto the front of Corporal Riley's uniform shirt. Joy took a fighting stance inside the cell towards Corporal Riley. Corporal Riley entered the cell and used both hands to push Joy onto the bench. Joy began to swing both of his arms with closed fists, so Corporal Riley grabbed Joy's left arm and took him to the ground. Joy began to kick his legs so Corporal Riley grabbed his legs with his right arm and lifted Joy's legs up. Joy attempted to grab Corporal Riley's genitals so he delivered a knee strike to Joy's back. Joy then spat on Corporal Riley's face. Corporal Riley attempted to push away Joy's face as he spat but was bitten by Joy on the left thumb. Corporal Riley punched Joy in the right eye one time with a closed fist.

Deputies Addenbrooke, Ruvalcaba, Reyes and I arrived at Booking Holding #1 at approximately 1643. I observed Joy on his back inside the cell near the toilet. I grabbed Joy's right arm with both my hands and pulled him away from the toilet. I gave Joy the command to roll onto his stomach but he did not do so. Deputy Addenbrooke and I were able to roll Joy onto his stomach; I grabbed his right arm and placed it behind his lower back. Deputy Addenbrooke placed Joy's left arm behind his back, and I placed handcuffs onto Joy's wrists. Additional Deputies arrived on scene, Deputy Reyes and Deputy Ruvalcaba applied downward pressure to Joy's legs and deputy Ruvalcaba placed leg chains onto Joy. Lieutenant Snyder #5950, Sergeant's Blackwell #7264, Sgt. Dennis #7775, Shawcroft #5893, and Navarro #4432 arrived on scene. A gurney arrived to transport Joy to the third floor medical area; Deputies lifted Joy onto the gurney and a spit sock was placed onto him. Joy was taken to be evaluated by SDCJ Medical Staff. UCSD Dr. (b)(5)(B) evaluated Joy and recommended he be transported to the hospital via Ambulance.

STATEMENT OF SUSPECT (JOY, TRENT):

I was unable to obtain a statement from Joy due to him being at the hospital.

INVESTIGATION (CONTINUED):

REPORT NARRATIVEORIGIN:

On 3/7/2015, at approximately 1630 hours, I was assigned to the Movement Deputy position at the San Diego Central Jail (SDCJ). I responded to PTS Holding Cell #2 when the Central Command and Control Deputy requested a welfare check be conducted. When I arrived I saw Inmate Trent Joy (Bkg# 15714795) standing at the cell door with blood on his face.

DEPUTY'S OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

I opened the cell door and removed Joy from the cell. I instructed Joy to face the wall. Joy complied. I used both of my hands to guide Joy's hands behind his back and I placed handcuffs on Joy's wrists and escorted him to Booking Holding Cell #1 to interview him.

Once we arrived at Booking Holding Cell #1 I told Joy to have a seat on the bench inside the cell. Joy complied. I asked Joy what happened in the other cell. Joy replied, "You can see can't you." I asked Joy to explain to me what happened and that I needed him to be specific about the events that transpired. Joy again was very vague when he responded, and would not give me a straight answer. I again asked Joy to explain to me what happened to him while he was in the other cell. Joy said, "I was assaulted by an inmate of another race while I was using the phone." I asked Joy if he wanted to see the nurse for his injuries. Joy would not respond to my question. I again asked Joy if he wanted to be seen by a nurse. Joy nodded his head up and down which I interpreted to mean he wanted to be seen by a nurse. I assisted Joy to his feet and escorted him to the Medical Screening area on the 2nd Floor.

I removed the handcuffs from Joy's wrists and instructed Joy to have a seat in the chair in front of Nurse (b)(5)(B) station. Nurse (b)(5)(B) interviewed Joy about his injuries and how he received them. I retrieved a camera and took pictures of Joy's person and (b)(5)(B) injuries prior to Nurse (b)(5)(B) cleaning and treating Joy's injury. Joy had a small cut on the inside of his bottom lip. While I was with Joy Deputy (b)(5)(B) Ruvalcaba (7072) interviewed the inmates in PTS Holding Cell #2. All of the inmates in the cell stated that Joy had been banging his own head against the wall after he found out that he was not on the bailout list. Deputy Ruvalcaba checked all of the inmates' hands for signs that they had been involved in an assault and determined that none of the inmates showed signs of being in an altercation or had any blood on them. Deputy Ruvalcaba met me at the Medical Screening area and informed me of his findings.

Nurse [REDACTED] informed me that he was finished treating Joy. I instructed Joy to stand up and step onto the red line. Joy stood up from the chair and stood there. Joy said, "What do you want me to do now." I told Joy to step onto the red line and pointed to the red line painted on the floor. Joy complied. I began to escort Joy back to Booking Holding Cell #1. As we were walking I placed my right hand on the back of Joy's upper left arm in order to escort him. As Joy and I approached Booking Holding Cell #2 Joy began to tense up his arm and attempted to pull away from me. To prevent Joy from turning toward me or pulling away, I used both of my hands to grab Joy's left arm pushed him into the wall. I maintained my hold on Joy's left arm and placed my right forearm across Joy's back. I told Joy to calm down and stop tensing up. Joy relaxed and I escorted him to Booking Holding Cell #1 and guided him inside the cell. I let go of Joy's arm. Joy suddenly turned to face me and spat a mix of saliva and blood in my direction. The spittle landed on my tan uniform shirt. Joy then took a step toward the cell door. To prevent Joy from possibly exiting the cell or assaulting me I stepped into the cell and placed both of my hands on Joy's chest. I pushed Joy backward using both of my hands. Joy fell back on the bench on the left (north) side of the cell.

I approached Joy in an effort to gain control of him. As I got near Joy he closed both of his hands into fists and began to swing wildly at me. To prevent Joy from striking me I raised my right arm to block his swings and used my facility radio to call for cover in order to receive assistance with Joy.

Joy was still swinging both of his arms in an effort to strike me. I used both of my hands to grab Joy's left arm and pulled Joy off the bench. Joy landed on the floor. Joy was lying on his back with his head near the toilet in the cell and his feet in my direction. I approached Joy and he began to kick his legs in an attempt to strike me. I used my right arm to wrap up Joy's legs from underneath as I knelt down on the floor. I used my right arm to raise Joy's lower body and legs above my shoulders to prevent him from being able to kick me. Joy then spat at me again. The spittle landed on my left side of my face. I placed my left hand on the right side of Joy's face and turn his head so he could not spit on me again.

Suddenly I could feel one of Joy's hands reaching near my groin. I feared Joy was trying to either grab or strike my genitals. To prevent Joy from grabbing or hitting my genitals I used my right knee to strike Joy's back. I used my left hand to grab the right side of Joy's face, and with my left thumb I applied downward pressure on Joy's right cheek bone. Joy then maneuvered his head and was able to bite down on my left thumb at the knuckle. I told Joy to stop biting my thumb. Joy would not release my left thumb from his mouth. I used my right knee to strike Joy's back and he released my thumb. Joy was struggling to free his legs from my hold, and he was swinging his hands and grabbing at my face. To prevent Joy from freeing himself and or striking me I used my left hand and struck Joy in the face with a closed fist. I used my right knee to deliver a strike to Joy's back.

Joy continued struggling to free his legs. I was able to maintain my hold on his legs until other deputies arrived at the cell. When the other deputies arrived they took control of Joy's legs and pulled him to the middle of the cell and turned him on to his stomach. I placed my right knee on Joy's upper back and applied my body weight in order to prevent him from attempting to stand while Deputies Addenbrooke (0133) and Grose (3362) placed handcuffs on Joy's wrists. Once Joy was handcuffed I removed my knee from his back and stood up. I had no further contact with Joy.

I went to the Medical Screening area on the 2nd Floor and asked Nurse [REDACTED] if it was possible for Joy to have sustained his injury from hitting his own head against the wall. Nurse [REDACTED] confirmed that it was possible, and informed me that he found a report from a previous time Joy was in custody that documented Joy had caused similar injuries by banging his head against the wall in a sobering cell.

REPORT NARRATIVEORIGIN:

On 3/7/2015, I was assigned to the 2nd Floor Medical Screening Deputy Position at San Diego Central Jail (SDCJ). At approximately 1642 hours, I was involved in a Use of Force with Inmate Trent Joy (BKG #15714795) during a cover now call in Booking Holding Cell #1.

DEPUTY'S OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

While performing my duties, a deputy came over the radio saying "Come to booking 1!" in a tense voice. I ran to Booking Holding Cell #1 and saw Corporal Riley (7069), wrestling with Joy next to the toilet. I entered the cell and grabbed Joy's right leg with both my hands. I began to drag him away from the toilet into the open space of the cell. I pushed him over onto his stomach with the help of Deputy Grose (3362). I utilized my body weight and both my hands to put downward pressure onto Joy's back to keep him pinned to the ground. I grabbed Joy's left hand with my left hand and brought it to his lower back. Grose handcuffed Joy's wrists. Deputy Ruvalcaba (7072) applied leg chains to Joy's legs.

After Joy was secured with handcuffs and leg chains, Deputies Rubalcava, Grose and I lifted Joy by his shoulders and legs and exited the cell. We placed Joy onto a gurney. I placed a spit sock over Joy's head because Corporal Riley stated Joy spit in his face, which started the incident.

Sergeant Shawcroft (5893) arrived on scene while were securing Joy and remained on scene until the area was safe.

REPORT NARRATIVE

Case# 15111827

ORIGIN:

On 03/07/15, I was assigned at the San Diego Central Jail (SDCJ) as the Booking Deputy. At about 1642 hours, I was working on the 2nd Floor when a call for cover was broadcasted over the facility radio. The location given over the radio was Booking Cell #1. I responded to Booking Cell #1.

DEPUTY'S OBSERVATIONS AND ACTIONS:

When I arrived, I saw several deputies struggling with an inmate later identified as Trent Joy BN 15714795. The inmate was thrashing wildly in the right corner of the cell next to the toilet. He was grunting and not complying with instructions to get on his stomach. Joy was on his back kicking and I was able to grab his left leg and Deputy Addenbrooke #0133 grabbed his right leg. Together we were able to pull him out of the corner next to the toilet and unto the middle of the cell floor. Deputies Addenbrooke and Grose #3362 were able to flip Joy unto his stomach.

Because I feared Joy could hurt someone by kicking, I grabbed both his legs, crossed them and applied downward pressure to his legs. I was then given leg chains and I secured his legs by placing the leg chains around his ankles. Once his legs were secured and he was handcuffed, Deputies Addenbrooke, Grose and I lifted him up from the floor and placed him outside of the cell and unto his stomach while we waited for a gurney.

Inmate Joy was no longer resisting. A gurney was brought to us and we lifted inmate Joy unto the gurney on his stomach and secured him on the gurney. Deputy Addenbrooke placed a spit sock over Joy's head to prevent him from spitting. I had no further contact with inmate Joy.

REPORT NARRATIVE

CASE DISPOSITION: Submitted DA

SUMMARY:

On 3-7-15, at approximately 1642 hours, Inmate Trent Joy BN 15714795 battered and gassed Corporal Riley (7069) inside Booking Holding #1 at the San Diego Central Jail (SDCJ). Joy spit on the front of Corporal Riley's shirt, on his face and bit him on the left thumb causing minor injury. Once Corporal Riley took Joy to the ground, Joy began to kick Corporal Riley in the legs and attempted to grab his genitals. Joy was read his Miranda Rights on 7-1-15 and agreed to speak. Joy admitted to the assault of Corporal Riley. The assault was not captured on video surveillance.

INVESTIGATION:

On 6-29-15, I was assigned case number 15111827 for follow up. I read the report written by Deputy Grose (3362) and reviewed all of the evidence associated with the case. On 3-7-15 Inmate Trent Joy claimed to be the victim of a battery inside PTS Holding Cell #2 at SDCJ (see case number 15115059). Joy told investigating deputies he was punched in the mouth by an unknown Hispanic inmate. Deputy Ruvalcaba (7072) conducted suspect/witness checks and was unable to find any inmate inside the cell that looked like they were involved in an assault and there is no video surveillance inside of the cell. All of the inmates in the cell told Deputy Ruvalcaba that Joy injured himself by banging his head against the wall when he found out he was not on the bail-out list.

Joy was removed from the cell and seen by SDCJ medical staff. Nurse (b)(5)(B) treated Joy and cleared him to continue with the booking process. Nurse (b)(5)(B) informed Corporal Riley that Joy had injured himself during a prior incarceration and claimed to have been assaulted by another inmate. Corporal Riley escorted Joy to Booking Holding Cell #1. While Corporal Riley was escorting Joy to Holding Cell #1 (see video surveillance @ 2 minutes 56 seconds) using arm-guidance, Joy jerks his left shoulder forward in an attempt to overcome Corporal Riley's control of his arm. Corporal Riley places Joy against the wall in an attempt to control him. Several seconds later Corporal Riley escorts Joy into Cell #1. As Joy enters the cell, you can see via video Corporal Riley look down at his chest after Joy spits on him. During the ensuing Use of Force, Corporal Riley is kicked in the legs and bitten on the left thumb. Joy spits on Corporal Riley's face, attempts to fist strike him and grab his genitals.

On 7-1-15, at approximately 1018 hours, I interviewed Inmate Joy with my partner Detective Powell (7307) in the House 6 Holding Cell at the George Bailey Detention Facility (GBDF). I introduced myself and my partner as detectives from the Detentions Investigations Unit (DIU) and told him we were there to speak to him regarding the incident at SDCJ in March. I asked Joy if he would be willing to speak with us and he said yes. I read Joy his Miranda Rights. Joy indicated he understood his rights by saying yes after I read each right to him. I asked Joy, "Do you understand each of these rights I have explained to you?" Joy said, "Yes."

The following is a synopsis of Joy's statement. For complete statement please refer to compact disc attached to report.

STATEMENT OF TRENT JOY BN 15719813:

I asked Joy if he remembered the incident at SDCJ in March and he said, "Oh yeah." Joy said he would tell me the whole story. Joy told me he was assaulted by an inmate while he was attempting to use the phone. Joy said he called the deputies on the intercom to tell them he had been assaulted. The deputy removed him and took him to the nurse's station so she could medically clear him. Joy said the deputy then escorted him to a holding cell. Joy said he told the deputy, "You don't have to be so rough." Joy said the deputy had him by the arm and was shaking him. Joys said he didn't like to be aggressively handled. I asked Joy if that is why he spit on the deputy. Joy said, "Yes." Joy said, "He just wanted to hurt somebody." I asked Joy if he spit on the deputy first and he said, "I spit on him yeah." I asked Joy where he tried to spit on him and he said, "On his shirt, just on him." Joy said the deputy was not doing his job right and he was aggressively attacking him.

I asked Joy when he began kicking Corporal Riley. Joy said he was on the ground and the deputy was punching him. Joy said while he was being put in handcuffs Corporal Riley put his foot on Joy's head. I asked Joy if he kicked Corporal Riley or another deputy that came to help and he said he did not remember. Joy said he was just flailing. I asked Joy if he remembered biting Corporal Riley. Joy initially said he did not remember and then said he did. Joy said Corporal Riley was hitting him in the face and his hand got in his mouth so he bit him. Joy said, "If someone puts their hand in your mouth I don't know what you do. I do remember biting him though." Joy said he was then put in the hospital and now he is "Trying to fight a bill that they want me to pay."

I asked Joy if the deputies removed him from the initial cell because he was assaulted. Joy said "I didn't like the way he was handling me. There was a fight, he came and got me out, he was treating me like the other person." I asked Joy if he understood that in the jail environment, deputies cannot take an inmate's word, they have to investigate. Joy said he understood that is a deputy's job but it is also his job to find out his side of the story. Joy said that he was the victim and should have been treated as the victim and not be aggressive about it. I asked Joy if the deputy disrespected him and he said he disrespected himself. I asked Joy if that is why he spit on him and he said, "I don't like punching people or anything." I asked Joy, "So you spit on him instead?" Joy said, "I spit on everybody if they disrespect me like that." I asked Joy if he understands that spitting on someone is wrong and he said no. I then asked him if someone spat on him if he would feel that that was wrong and he said "Yeah." I asked Joy if he understood that fighting with the deputies in the jail is wrong and he said, "Yeah, I've never been in a fight in the jail since that happened."

I asked Joy if he had any questions and he said he wanted to call an attorney regarding his hospital bill. I told him that was fine and I ended the interview.
